

ALEX ROITMAN TANGO ENSEMBLE (ARTE)

Sarasota / Boston | Seasonal: November–May (Florida-based)

OVERVIEW

The Alex Roitman Tango Ensemble (ARTE) is a bandoneon-led ensemble presenting Argentine tango in audience-focused concert programs. The group performs traditional tango and modern concert repertoire in an accessible chamber format designed for concert halls, presenting series, and community venues.

ARTE performs primarily as a quartet, with expanded ensemble options available for special presentations. Programs are designed for both concert audiences and community presenting series, with flexibility for different venue sizes and formats.

ARTISTIC PROFILE

Led by bandoneonist Alex Roitman, ARTE presents the expressive range of Argentine tango—from rhythmic traditional forms to expansive modern concert works.

Repertoire includes works by Astor Piazzolla, Alfredo Gobbi, Osvaldo Pugliese, and Horacio Salgán, performed in a chamber music format emphasizing clarity, lyricism, and rhythmic drive.
